Mission Statement

The Friends of the MDPL shall act as a bridge to the community by:

Increasing public awareness of, focusing attention on, and expanding use of the MDPL.

Supporting the freedom to read as expressed in the American Library Association Bill of Rights.

Cooperating with the library in developing, maintaining and enhancing facilities, resources and services for the public.

Initiating, organizing, promoting, and encouraging cultural and educational activities.

Procuring gifts, endowments, and bequests for the benefit of the MDPL, as well as raising funds for library materials and activities.

Library Lovers Needed

We have a great library, but we can make it better. Would you like to meet new people and think of new ideas to help our library and community?

Your Friendship & Support are Priceless

Your membership & ideas will help us to increase public awareness of the MDPL, develop new services for the public, organize and promote cultural & educational activities, as well as raise funds for library materials and activities.

Please Join Today. We Need You!

We have a number of different membership levels available.

Friends are invited to a monthly meeting on the last Wednesday of the month in the Library. These meetings usually last around an hour.

The Friends of the Mechanicville Library is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit charity. Donations are tax deductible.

There are two types of Friends members: "Contributing Members" who write a check every year because they want to support the library, and "Active Members" who serve as officers and/or volunteer for committee assignments and other Friends' projects.
